2026 / ADVERTISER & SPONSORSHIP BROCHURE

Compliance Tech Talk

The compliance tech community for CCOs.

Support a focused community. Keep compliance conversations independent.

Built for CCOs and compliance teams at SEC-, FINRA- and CFTC-regulated firms. Sponsorship supports free membership and clearly labeled visibility—not paid influence.

FREE MEMBERSHIP. INDEPENDENT REVIEWS.

01 / THE FIT

Relevance before reach.

A focused setting for compliance technology—not a general business advertising audience.

Who the community is built for

CCOs and compliance professionals evaluating technology and services for regulated financial firms. This describes the community's focus—not measured audience demographics.

01 Practical technology context

Directory research, workflow comparisons, vendor news and peer conversations bring technology questions into one setting.

02 Clearly labeled visibility

Choose a specific page placement, an enhanced directory profile or an approved educational sponsorship.

03 An independent environment

Sponsorship never changes rankings, ratings, review moderation, comparisons or editorial coverage.

No impressions, leads, attendance or sales are guaranteed.

02 / PAGE PLACEMENTS

Start with one placement.

A simple way to support the community and introduce your brand. Annual options provide 12 months for the price of 10.

PLACEMENT	MONTHLY	ANNUAL

What to include in your inquiry

Your company, preferred placement or package, proposed message or educational topic, and desired timing. We will confirm pricing, available inventory and content requirements before any commitment.

> Sponsorship buys a disclosed placement—not access to private member information or influence over the community.

Compliance Tech Talk is owned and operated by Compliance Admins LLC. Its host, Craig Neal, founded Compliance Admins and ThirdNexa (thirdnexa.ai), a vendor risk platform. ThirdNexa is listed in the directory like any other vendor, with no ranking advantage.
